

2021 Strata Schemes Review Tabled in NSW Parliament

Earlier this year Warwick van Ede, specialist strata lawyer and member of the Property Law Committee of the Law Society of NSW invited you to participate in the process of review of the current strata legislation in NSW as part of the statutory review process.

Over 2,300 online survey responses were received and over 200 submissions filed through the NSW Government's website in relation to the statutory review.

The report on the outcome of the statutory review was finally tabled in the NSW Parliament on Monday 29 November 2021. In total 37 recommendations were made in relation to proposed amendments to the Strata Schemes Development Act 2015, and 102 recommendations were made in relation to the Strata Schemes Management Act 2015.

The key recommendations of the Strata Schemes Development Act and Strata Schemes Management Act can be found here 2021 Strata Review Tabled in NSW Parliament – Key findings
