

Is NCAT's Ability to Resolve Strata Disputes Unclear?

What would you think if you were told that NCAT could not order an owners corporation to carry out repairs to common property or order a lot owner or tenant to comply with a by-law?

No doubt you would think that could not be correct.

However, recent decisions by the Appeal Panel of NCAT have cast doubt on NCAT's power to resolve most types of strata disputes.

So where does that leave us?
